

Scarborough Community Renewal Organization and the Toronto Public Library invite you to

LOW INCOME RETIREMENT PLANNING

presented by John Stapleton, Open Policy Toronto

Are you a young adult with aging parents?
Are you someone who will retire on a low income?
Are you a relative of someone who will retire on a low income?

John will help you understand how to get the most from income security programs, including:
Old Age Security Guaranteed Income Supplement Ontario Disability Support

Saturday, November 10th
1:00 – 3:30 pm
Malvern Public Library,
30 Sewells Road

Saturday, December 8th
1:00 – 3:30 pm
Agincourt Public Library,
155 Bonis Avenue

All are welcome! As limited seating is available please arrive early.

For more information contact info@renewscarborough.org.

DID YOU KNOW:
32% of seniors retire on a low income?
Early CPP and saving in TFSA's are the best way to maximize a low income retirement?
RRSP's can be good and bad for low income retirees?